LEADERSHIP

Autism Care Club

Founder

- Due to lack of care for autistic people in the society, I decided to start a care center to propagate autism and organize student volunteers to help autism therapy centers.
- Organize students from over 30 Chinese high schools to volunteer in autism therapy centers in Chengdu, resulting in a combined contribution of 1000+ hours.
- Implement small conferences for the purpose of bringing psychologists, autistic therapists and parents together.
- Collaborate with students to translate autism therapy researches from English to Chinese, and provide cost-free information to therapists and parents.
- Raise money for autistic therapy centers through the selling of hand-made Chinese crafts, resulting in a $900 profit and counting.
